TEACHING METHOD

All the French 2 courses start in the II Term and students will be divided into the three groups listed here below.

Previous knowledge of the content and skills of first year French courses are recommended for French 2 as starting bases.

Attendance is strongly recommended for ex-beginners, pre-intermediate and intermediate students to benefit from communicative approach of the lessons.

Group A: A-K (ex beginners): teacher Madame Valérie Durand

Group B: L-Z (ex beginners): teacher Monsieur Olivier Béguin

Group C: A-Z (intermediate / advanced): teacher Madame Isabelle Morel

Unlike first year courses, French II groups and courses have the same duration (II and III terms, 60 hours in total).

Group A and Group B courses could provide additional hours of training.

ASSESSMENT METHOD AND CRITERIA

French II courses conclude with an end-of-year examination, which consists of a written test of vocabulary, grammar and comprehension of a specialized text (Multiple choice / Fill in the gap; 1 point per question; PASS 60% or FAIL), followed by an oral test (mark out of 30).

The oral part of the exam consists in a simulation of a job interview. All aspects of the interview must be as real as possible and prepared as such (job offer, detailed, CV, why you are applying for this specific position, why the recruiter should choose you rather than somebody else...).

Students who regularly attend lessons will, instead, be assessed throughout the course, by means of group activities, role-plays, oral presentations and/or a written project.

Students who are holders of a French Baccalauréat or Esabac or a DELF B2 / C1 certificate (ones issued within two years of the date of presentation to the Selda office in the first year) will only have to take the oral part of the end-of-year examination (prepare for a professional job interview in French). They have to bring a copy of their Bac or Certificate on the day of the exam and show it to the teacher. The teacher could ask the Selda office to check the authenticity of the document.

Unlike French I, French II has a final mark out of 30 for all the students.

The lecturers will give further details about examination during the course. For additional information regarding assessment modalities as well as detailed grammar and manual units, students can refer to the Blackboard pages of their teacher: either Olivier Béguin, Valérie Durand or Isabelle Morel.
